THE SCIENCE BEHIND YOUR ENHANCEMENTS GUIDE

SUPPORTING WELLNESS AT THE CELLULAR LEVEL

We thoughtfully integrate evidence-based wellness technologies with holistic healing practices to support the body at a cellular level, nurture vitality, promote resilience and recovery, and restore overall balance for long-term well-being.

KLOUD FREQUENCY THERAPY

The Centropix KLOUD is a wellness mat designed to stimulate cellular health using electromagnetic frequencies. It utilizes a new technology, created by Dr. Wolf Kafka, termed Pulsed Electromagnetic Molecular Activation (PEMA). By generating low-frequency electromagnetic pulses, the mat interacts with the body to increase nitric oxide production, enhance microcirculation, and accelerate cellular recovery.

You can customize your time comfortably on the KLOUD mat with five programs: Relaxation; Balancing; Energizing; Synchronizing; Transformation.

For cellular optimization, use the KLOUD mat twice daily for up to 30 minutes. Please inquire about our Premium Molecular Activation Package.

HYDROGEN RENEWAL THERAPY

Molecular hydrogen acts as a selective antioxidant, penetrating the cell to neutralize oxidative stress at the mitochondrial level. The Axiom H2 system supports recovery, reduces inflammation, and enhances overall vitality.

IONIC DETOX RITUAL

An ionic foot bath designed to support the body's natural detoxification pathways through ion exchange. This process may assist circulation, promote relaxation, and support the body's ability to eliminate metabolic waste.

SACRED SOUND FLOW

Sound frequencies and vibration delivered through the comfort of a memory foam Vibe Bed influence brainwave activity and the nervous system, guiding the body into a parasympathetic (rest-and-repair) state. This supports stress reduction, mental clarity, and overall physiological balance.

INFRARED LIGHT THERAPY

The TheraPro PEMF/Infrared/Red Light Healing Pad uses natural jade, rose quartz, amethyst, shungite and tourmaline stones to support optimal healing by improving circulation, digestion, sleep, athletic performance & recovery, mood, relaxation, sharper cognitive function and focus, lymphatic drainage, immunity, injury recovery, energy and relief from allergies, ADHD, pain and tension. The pad features individual settings to customize your session and advanced Earthing Technology for polarity balancing and grounding.

PEMF is contraindicated for women who are pregnant and individuals with a pacemaker and/or other electronic implants.
